FACT SHEETS

Foord publishes fact sheets monthly. The latest fact sheets are available free of charge on the website. The fund’s performance, net of fees, is calculated for the portfolio on a single pricing basis (ie. NAV to NAV rolling monthly basis). Readers should note that individual investor performance may differ as a result of the actual investment date and the date of reinvestment net of withholding taxes, where applicable. Past performance disclosed are not indicative of future performance. In addition, the portfolio information is presented using effective exposures unless otherwise stated. Totals may not cast perfectly due to rounding.

FEES AND CHARGES

1. Foord charges zero initial, switching and exit fees. Management fees and other charges are disclosed in the fund's offering documents.
2. A total expense ratio ("TER") is a measure of a portfolio's annual expenses, fees and charges, expressed as a percentage its average daily net asset value. The TER may include the TERs of the underlying fund if significant portfolio of its net asset is invested in a target fund. The calculation methodology is disclosed in the fund's annual report and audited financial statements. For relative return funds, the TER includes, where applicable, performance fees crystallised at the end of the accounting period when performance fee conditions are met. Performance fee conditions and calculation methodology are disclosed in the fund's offering documents. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER is not indicative of its future TER. The latest audited TERs are disclosed in the annual report and audited financial statements and the unaudited semi-annual financial statements.
3. Transaction costs are affected by the quantum of the gross in- and outflows over the period presented.
4. Readers should note that management fee varies between funds and between classes within each fund.

TAXATION

1. Foord will not be responsible for any loss, consequential or otherwise, arising from changes in tax or legislation that may have an impact on the performance of the investments.
2. Investors are encouraged to seek independent tax advice regarding the potential tax consequences of investment in the Foord global funds, taking account of their personal circumstances.
